

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 A transcutaneous immunization system where the topical application of an adjuvant and an antigen or nucleic acid encoding for an antigen, to intact skin induces a systemic or mucosal antibody response. The immune response so elicited can be enhanced by physical or chemical skin penetration enhancement.